Executive Profile

Dr Le Sueur is a Senior Lecturer and the Head of Accreditation and Quality Assurance at the University of Stellenbosch Business School. In her capacity at USB, she raises the standard of management education using her extensive knowledge regarding international Accreditation quality standards, assurance of learning, curriculum design and teaching effectiveness.

Before she joined academia in 2013, she worked for twelve years in the arena of Management Consulting in Europe where she successfully completed many organisational and human resources development projects, including major organisational change initiatives across a range of industries. She combines her academic and practical work experience uniquely in the classroom and in her research. She teaches on USB's Postgraduate Diploma Programmes on Organisational Behaviour and Strategic Organisational Change.

Dr Le Sueur holds a PhD in Education from the University of Bielefeld in Germany, with a focus on Organizational Learning and Personnel Development since 2001. She was awarded the Old Mutual Gold Medal for her outstanding academic performance when she graduated from the MBA programme at the UCT Graduate School of Business, Cape Town, in 2009. Prior to this she earned her first degrees at the University of Cologne.

Her teaching philosophy: "I create student-centred learning experiences, which are evidence based grounded in scientific research and made relevant through the application in real life context."
